ANSWER

MINISTER OF TOURISM

(SHRI G. KISHAN REDDY)

(a) to (e): The Ministry of Tourism has framed "Development of Iconic Tourist Destinations Scheme", for development of nineteen identified iconic destinations including Kumarakom (Kerala) in the country following a holistic approach. The scheme is under submission for approval of competent authority. No process has been initiated to prepare a detailed project report for Kumarakom as Iconic Tourist Destination. However a draft master plan has been prepared by the Ministry of Tourism for development of Kumarakom through the consortium of M/s INI Design Studio - Jones Lang Laselle Property Consultants India Pvt. Ltd and is under consultation with stakeholders.

As the scheme is not approved, no details regarding development projects and the funds sanctioned in this regard have been finalized. However, in the Expenditure Finance Committee (EFC) meeting held on 15.10.2020 an amount of Rs.5109 Crore for the period of Financial Year 2020-21 to 2025-26 has been recommended for development of 19 Iconic Tourist Destinations.
