The passengers gathered in the memorial hall of the Bhim Janmabhoomi and discussed the life, struggles etc. of Babasaheb Ambedkar. Passengers of the train expressed happiness on this initiative of the Central Government and said that through the yatra we are getting the privilege of visiting the places associated with the life of Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar.

From Indore, the Bharat Gaurav Tourist train tour today morning reached Nagpur. The tourists on their arrival at Nagpur visited Deekshabhoomi and Dragon Palace. Deekshabhoomi is a historic place where Dr. Ambedkar embraced Buddhism with lakhs of his followers in October 1956. The last remains of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar are kept in the central dome of Deekshbhoomi stupa. Dragon Palace at Kamptee town in Nagpur has a pleasant environment for meditation where a Buddha idol made from Sandalwood is the centre of attraction. The tourists bid adieu to Nagpur late in the evening and left for the next leg of their journey at Sanchi in Madhya Pradesh. After Sanchi, Varanasi is the next destination. The visit of Sarnath & Kashi Vishwanath Temple will be a part of the days sightseeing. Gaya is the next and the last destination that the train arrives at, on the 6th day of the journey. The holy site of Bodhgaya is where the tourists visit the famous Mahabodhi Temple and other monasteries.

The next day the tourists proceed for sightseeing of Rajgir and Nalanda by road. Buddhist sites and the ruins at Nalanda are the key sites at the destination. The train will depart from Gaya for New Delhi as the train tour comes to an end.

The Bharat Gaurav Tourist train tour on Ambedkar Circuit was flagged off today by Shri G. Kishan Reddy, Minister of Tourism, Culture and DONER, & Dr. Virendra Kumar, Minister of Social Justice and Empowerment from Hazrat Nizamuddin Railway Station.
