City spotlight: Siliguri

VISIT THE INCREDIBLE GATEWAY TO NORTHEAST INDIA

Nestled amidst the foothills of the majestic Himalayas, Siliguri is a city steeped in history and natural splendor. Its name, which means "a stack of pebbles or stones", alludes to the many boulders that once dotted the banks of the Mahananda and Teesta rivers, which flow gracefully through the heart of the city.

But Siliguri is more than just a city with stunning natural beauty - it is also a strategic hub that connects four international borders, including China, Nepal, Bangladesh, and Bhutan. As such, it plays a crucial role in linking the Northeast region of India with the rest of the country, making it an important economic and cultural center.

The city is also home to an incredible 45 tea gardens, each producing some of the finest teas in the world. The surrounding sub-Himalayan forests are home to an incredible array of flora and fauna, making it a popular destination for nature lovers and wildlife enthusiasts.

Whether you're looking to explore the city's rich cultural heritage, sample some of its world-famous teas, or immerse yourself in the stunning wilderness that surrounds it, Siliguri is a must-visit destination.

Fun fact: Siliguri is one of the host cities for the official G20 meetings in India in 2023.

TOP 5 EXPERIENCES IN SILIGURI

— Toy Train

Take a fairytale journey with the Toy Train, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, to experience the spectacular views of the Himalayas. The experience is so magical, it made Mark Twain exclaim after a ride on the train, "It was the most enjoyable day I have spent on earth." The train passes through Ghum – the highest railway station in India, and covers a distance of 88 kms.

Tea Gardens

Take a tour of Siliguri's lush tea gardens, learn about the tea-making process, and sample some of the finest teas in the world! What's more, you can even choose to stay at one of the tea gardens. Some must-visit tea gardens include Sepoy Dhura Tea Garden & New Chumta Tea Estate which is one of the oldest tea gardens in the region.

Jungle Safari

Spot some of the most exotic and endangered species up close and in their natural habitats with a variety of safaris in North Bengal Wild Animals Park, or Bengal Safari. Spread over an area of 297 hectares, the park offers Tiger Safari, Mixed Herbivore Safari, Asiatic Black Bear Safari apart from sprawling landscapes, and diverse range of flora and fauna to satiate the wildlife lover in you.

Coronation Bridge

Locally called as Bagh Pool (Tiger Bridge), the Coronation Bridge was made to commemorate King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. It took 8 years to build this engineering marvel & could only be completed with the help of three Bengali architects who came to the rescue of the British counterparts when they faced challenges building this bridge.

Monasteries and Temples

From Salugara Monastery that houses a stunning 100-ft stupa and honours the legacy of Dalai Lama to Kali Mandir that is revered by newlyweds to seek blessings for a happy married life to the resilient Syed Gued Monastery that stands tall today after being destroyed by the Chinese army, Siliguri is home to sanctuaries of spirituality that are bound to offer you an ethereal experience.

India Celebrates

India is a melting pot of different religions, cultures, and traditions, where people of all faiths come together in harmony to celebrate an array of festivals that are as colorful as they are diverse. With these celebrations, the country comes alive with a kaleidoscope of sights, sounds, and flavours that offer a truly unforgettable experience.

TOP FESTIVALS TO EXPERIENCE IN MARCH-APRIL

BAISAKHI

Baisakhi is a cherished festival, as it signifies the commencement of the Sikh new year and the establishment of the Khalsa Panth by Guru Gobind Singh Ji in 1699. It is also a time when farmers begin their Rabi crop harvest and express their gratitude to nature. The lively preparations for Baisakhi begin days before the festival, with decorated Gurudwaras, men practicing Martial Arts, and artisans selling their handicrafts. From experiencing the Kada Prasad and Guru ka Langar at the Golden Temple to spectating Nagar Kirtan and dancing to the beat of Bhangra and Gidda, Baisakhi is a time of immense joy and celebration in Punjab.

Where to celebrate: Head to Shri Anandpur Sahib, Punjab to celebrate Baisakhi on April 14.

RAJASTHAN DIWAS

The royal state of Rajasthan, also the largest state in India, celebrates Rajasthan Day every year on 30th March for it is the day when four princely states - Jodhpur, Jaipur, Bikaner and Jaisalmer were merged to form the Rajasthan of today. The name 'Rajasthan' refers to 'Abode of Kings' and the Rajasthan Day is celebrated with much fervour showcasing the best of its rich culture, colourful art forms, music and dance, heritage, delicacies and more. Don't miss the vibrant festival!

Where to celebrate: Head to Junagarh Fort, Bikaner, Rajasthan to experience the best of Rajasthan Diwas.

RAMA NAVAMI

The revered Hindu festival commemorates the birth of Lord Rama, the seventh avatar of Vishnu. Devotees mark the occasion by participating in Rama Katha recitals, reading of the Ramayana epic, and prayers at temples or within their homes. Some take part in bhajans or kirtans with music and decorate miniature statues of infant Rama. The festivities are grandly celebrated in Ayodhya, Rameswaram, Bhadrachalam, and Sitamarhi, cities significant to Rama's life as per the Ramayana legends. Celebrated every year on the ninth day of Chaitra (the first month in the Hindu calendar), Rama Navami will fall on 30th March this year.

Where to celebrate: Visit Hazaribagh, Jharkhand for its famous procession (now 100 years old) on the occasion of Rama Navami.
